Dear K Jarrett

Thank you for your email of 9 July 2019, requesting, under the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA), the following information:

Please supply the following information regarding the Boeing 757's operated by RNZAF 40 Squadron. (I believe they are known as NZ571/KIW71/BOE71 & NZ572/KIW72/BOE72) Within the time frame of 00.00 am Sunday 7/7/2019 and 09.00 am Tuesday 9/7/2019 the time and place of departure, intended destination, actual destination and time of arrival of all flights.

As well as the manifest of all passengers and crew, including names (Names of any New Zealand Defence Force or New Zealand Police personnel or employees is not required in this request)

I am transferring your request to the New Zealand Defence Force (NZDF) under section 14(b)(i) of the OIA as the information that you request is held by the NZDF, and not by the office of the Minister of Defence.

Under section 28(3) of the OIA you have the right to complain to an Ombudsman about my response to your request.

Yours sincerely
