2. Situation

2.1. General Overview.

- 2.1.1. The New Zealand Defence Industry Association (NZDIA) is hosting its forum in Wellington, New Zealand on 10th and 11th of October 2017.
- 2.1.2. This is an annual event which brings together industry, suppliers, government, the NZDF and other stakeholders.
- 2.1.3. NZDIA was formed in 1993 as an industry development initiative. Its major emphasis is on networking and encouraging the membership to work together on developing joint approaches to defence projects in New Zealand and overseas.
- 2.1.4. The theme for this year's forum is "Emerging Technologies and Cybersecurity Capabilities Supporting National Security Agencies".
- 2.1.5. There are over 500 delegates from a global audience expected to attend the conference over both days.
- 2.1.6. [REDACTED]
- 2.1.7. [REDACTED]
- 2.1.8. [REDACTED]
- 2.1.9. There is also a scheduled dinner on the Wednesday evening which is expected to conclude [REDACTED]
- 2.1.10. Some business as usual activities will continue in the stadium while the conference takes place: About 20 Institute of Sport staff work at the stadium but have been asked to work off site if possible. Wellington Cricket will be running an academy for about 20 junior rep cricket players on both conference days. It is likely some of the students will be dropped at the stadium by parents. Messages have gone out to Wellington Cricket to alert them. Ground staff and contractors may be on site but have been tasked mainly at the Basin Reserve during the conference. 20 corporate staff will be on site. Cleaners and spotless staff and up to 150 casual staff involved in catering the conference will be on site.

Some permanent staff will arrive at their workplace by car but most casual staff will arrive on foot. Their access will need to be managed during the day. A number of casual callers arrive at the stadium on any given day. Many of these will be able to be turned away during the conference or reschedule their calls.

2.2. Groups to be policed.

- 2.2.1. It is expected that protest numbers will be in the vicinity of [REDACTED]
- 2.2.2. It is expected that the protest will be lead by Peace Action Wellington. (PAW)
- 2.2.3. [REDACTED] have also been fundraising in order for them to attend the conference.

2.3. Police Approach

- 2.3.1. Police are to be deployed in a supporting role to venue security and assist them when and as required.
- 2.3.2. Police will act as the lead agency for law and order ensuring that a high visibility and positive engagement policing approach is adopted.
- 2.3.3. Police will focus on ensuring public safety, preventing breaches of the peace and preserving law and order.
- 2.3.4. It is important that the protestors Bill of Rights are not breached and that they are allowed to express their freedom of speech, freedom of movement and peaceful assembly. Police will endeavour to allow this to occur.
- 2.3.5. Police also has to consider the rights of the delegates and their ability to attend the conference and will ensure that delegates can come and go without interruption.
