Your Official Information Act request, reference: GOV-002962

I refer to your email of 06 December 2019, asking for the following information under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act):

1. Any email correspondence between ACC staff or Board members regarding Te Ahumairangi Investment Management or the retention of Mr Bagnall's services post resignation.
2. Any Board or Committee papers that mention Te Ahumairangi Investment Management or the retention of Mr Bagnall's services post resignation.
3. A description of the procurement process followed to select Te Ahumairangi Investment Management as an Investment Manager.
4. Any documentation related to the procurement process described above
5. A description of any due diligence (including financial due diligence) performed by ACC to ensure the investment practices of Te Ahumairangi Investment Management are adequate to safeguard ACC's funds.
6. Any documentation related to the due diligence described above
7. The contract with Te Ahumairangi Investment Management
8. The value of funds to be managed by Te Ahumairangi Investment Management.
9. Any conflicts of interest declared by ACC staff or Board members regarding Te Ahumairangi Investment Management.

On 27 January 2020 we provided you with our response to questions 2-9 of your request. We explained that we needed more time to prepare the information in scope of question 1, Any email correspondence between ACC staff or Board members regarding Te Ahumairangi Investment Management or the retention of Mr Bagnall's services post resignation. We are now able to provide a response to this part of your request.
