Dear Francis Cole

I refer to your email of 10 January 2020 in which you request the following under the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA):

- "1. list of the new zealand delegation (all members) to the asean/east asia summit in thailand in november 2019*
- 2. list of the new zealand delegation (all members) to the UN general assembly in new york in september 2019*
- 3. names of hotels booked for the delegation attending the UN assembly in new york and number of rooms in each hotel"*

The attached annexes contain the delegation lists you requested. 17 rooms were booked across five hotels.

Your request for the names of hotels booked for the delegation attending the United Nations Assembly in New York is withheld under the following sections of the OIA:

- 6(a): to avoid prejudicing the security or defence of New Zealand or the international relations of the New Zealand Government; and
- 6(d): to endanger the safety of any person.

Please note that this letter (with your personal details redacted) may be published on the Ministry's website.

You have the right under section 28(3) of the OIA to seek a review of this response by the Ombudsman.

Yours sincerely

Wendy Adams
for Secretary of Foreign Affairs and Trade
