

Rates Collections Procedure

No policy on rates collections actually exists, only a process the rates officer goes by.

After rates have been sent out in Mid-October;

- Reminder letters for outstanding rates will be sent out in late January or early February
- More reminder letters for outstanding rates will then be sent out in June.
- Remaining outstanding rates will then be sent to the debt collectors who will pursue rates arrears – pursuant to the rating act.