Tēnā koe Mr Luke

Thank you for your email of 11 June 2021 to Oranga Tamariki—Ministry for children, requesting the following information under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act):

I would like to request a list of vacancy (ministerial appointment only, e.g. board member, Lay member, Trustee etc) that the nomination period has been closed but still under consideration by the Oranga Tamariki or relevant Minister.

In your list, can you please included the date that vacancy been advertised, what method you have used to publicly advertise the position and when the vacancy been closed as well.

Also, I would like to know if you have any future opening in 2021. e.g. the position that will call for nomination in the year of 2021.

Generally speaking, how you publicly call for nomination and what platform you are using to ensure the public awareness of your state sector board vacancy. If you don't publicly advertise it, can you please let me know how you make the decision not to and what's your rationale behind it?

The part of your request related to Ministerial appointments made by the Minister for Children has been transferred to my Office.

Please note I have no advertised vacancies for appointments to Boards and other entities for which I am responsible, nor do I intend to publicly advertise such vacancies in the remainder of 2021.

Information on the requirements and processes for considering appointments (and reappointments) made by Ministers, or the Governor-General on the advice of a Minister, can be found at the following link on the website of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet The appointments process | Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet \(DPMC\). On the webpage there is also a link to the Public Service Commission (PSC) website where further information can be found on the appointments process.

While a Minister is not required to consult publicly when seeking nominations for appointments to a Board, all but minor public appointments made by a Minister, or by the Governor-General on the advice of a Minister, should first be considered by the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee.

You may also be interested in information about the selection and appointment process for the Ministerial Advisory Board can be found in my Cabinet paper, which is publicly available at following link on the Oranga Tamariki website Cabinet-paper-Ministerial-Advisory-Board-Oranga-Tamariki.pdf \(orangatamariki.govt.nz\).

If you wish to discuss this response, please feel free to contact my office at k.davis@ministers.govt.nz. If you are not satisfied with this response, you have the right to ask an Ombudsman to review this decision. Information about this is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or by contacting them on 0800 802 602.
