Dear Mr Kern

Inland Revenue has received your request of 22 July 2021, made under the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA). You requested:

I am aware of the practice to issue the deduction notices against non-eligible accounts within the Child Support Department of Inland Revenue, e.g. knowingly attempting theft without legal authority.

I am trying to understand if it is isolated criminal actions of corrupt individuals within IRD or systematic abuse of power and usual practice of 'опиздохуевших мудотрахозаебышей'.

I am looking for the statistical information on the total amount of deduction notices issued by CS IRD and the amount of declined by finance institutions out of them on yearly basis backdating to 2010.

As outlined in my response sent to you on 21 June 2021, it is not reasonable to expect Inland Revenue to tolerate requests that use language that is offensive or abusive.

Your communication with Inland Revenue continues to be offensive and to show an excessive and disproportionate approach to the issue that concerns you.

I have therefore decided to refuse your request under section 18(h) of the OIA, as it is vexatious.

Right of review

If you disagree with my decision on your OIA request, you can ask an Inland Revenue review officer to review my decision. To ask for an internal review, please email the Commissioner of Inland Revenue at: CommissionersCorrespondence@ird.govt.nz.

Alternatively, under section 28(3) of the OIA, you have the right to ask the Ombudsman to investigate and review my decision. You can contact the office of the Ombudsman at: info@ombudsman.parliament.nz.

Yours sincerely
