Hi Emma

I am checking this and will get back to you next week. At this stage, I envisage it will be an "official visit", but will let you know. Once the form is filled out, I can come and collect it, and MFAT can take it down to the Consulate to process. I am pretty sure there will be no visa fee, given the nature of the visit. The turnaround is very quick – at most 3 or so days, but it can be quicker.

Kind regards
Colin

Hi- just completing the form for Robbie and wanted to run a couple of things past you

What is your recommendation for the type of Visa I should request

- Official visit?
- Business & Trade?
- or other? - and if other what do you recommend as the wording to support this

And is MFAT able to facilitate this request for a visa or are you happy for me to complete the form and take it with the invitation letter and Robbie's Passport to the Embassy I don't remember how many days it takes for the application to be processed

Thankyou – and have a lovely day

Emma
