Morena Philip,

Thank you for the update, your kind words and best of luck to you and the team for tomorrow 6(c) but if you need us to look at Counterspin later today or first thing tomorrow morning, please feel free to reach out. Also, Jason within our team is very keen to come out on an NZP warrant to gain some experience and help with searching. He is available and DIA are willing to fly him up to you tomorrow if that's something that would help/you'd be open to? He's also our Telegram SME so might be handy to have around for this.

Out of Scope

Look forward to hearing from you

For your information Police intend to terminate the investigation against Alp and SPIERER tomorrow so if things go well they should both be arrested by mid-day tomorrow for distributing the objectionable publication the 'The three faced terrorist Part One'.

Hannah thank you very much to you and your team for the work completed on this, it was the driver behind the investigation and we couldn't have reached this point without your assistance.

Good morning Hannah,

Phil is currently on leave and wont be back for a good couple of weeks, so thought I'd get in touch with you.

Yesterday we received notification that the documentary, 'The Three Faced Terrorist: An Investigation into the Christchurch Shootings - Part 2', has been deemed objectionable in NZ, with the formal decision by the Classification Office attached.

Glenn has been away for 3 weeks, I have been looking after the team with little to know staff and so I haven't been able to put a lot of effort to this investigation sadly but I plan to over the coming week. 6(c)

Kind regards

Hi Philip,

Part 2 of The Three Faced Terrorist' had an interim classification as being objectionable on the 28th of June, I have an email from the OFLC explaining that. On their website, they hold all of their decisions that are logged, I noted this interim decision was logged on their site on 1 July 2022. I don't believe that we have received the full decision yet but I will check on that tomorrow.

Our team is presently under the pump dealing with reports of the online content re. the tragic shooting in Buffalo, but Jason and I know that we need to put statements together for you. We plan to sit down on Friday to make a start on them but it is not likely to be until next week that we will be able to get them to you. Do you have any issue with this? Please do email me with anything you need / any queries you have though and I will cc Glenn into everything in case I need to drop and go – that way he is in the loop. I will also cc Jason to any Telegram related ones, as he is our Telegram go-to and can correct me on queries if needed.

Ngā mihi nui

Hannah

(P.S – I am normally much more helpful and efficient, I am sorry for the inconvenience of waiting for things).

Te Reo Māori (the Māori language) is one of the official languages of Aotearoa New Zealand. Te Reo Māori evolved in Aotearoa over several hundreds of years originating from the tipuna (ancestors) of today's Māori who came to Aotearoa by waka (canoe) from different villages and islands in eastern Polynesia. You can learn more about te reo Māori here.
