Official Information Act 1982 Request

Thank you for your information request of 6 April 2023, asking for the following:

*"i've seen them file 7's in the Kermedecs as "unnoticable" in NZ and put it on the back end page and not really notify the public even. Why is this?? i also seen dutchsins on youtube Potential very large earthquake possible next 7-10 day.
Do you guys follow him and it seems like he is right most of the time."*

Due to the nature of your request, we are treating part of your request under the Official Information Act 1982 (the OIA).

Clarification

On 17 April 2023, we sought clarification of this part of your request:

"i've seen them file 7's in the Kermedecs as "unnoticable" in NZ "

We asked you to clarify who you meant by "them" in the above sentence. Without a response to our request for clarification, we cannot identify the information you are requesting and as such we are unable to process this part of your request.

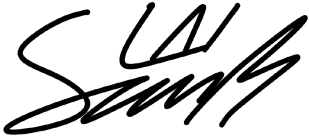

If you are able to provide further clarification, you are welcome to submit a further OIA request.

Response

In response to the remainder of your request, I can advise that Toka Tū Ake EQC does not follow dutchsins on YouTube.

You have the right to ask the Ombudsman to investigate and review this response. The Office of the Ombudsman can be contacted through their website at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz.
