Official information request about funding provided to preserve the southern Māori (Kāi Tahu) dialect and the Moriori language

Te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori acknowledges receipt of your official information request dated 20 April 2023, which I personally received today.

We plan to answer your request by 19 May 2023.

It's our intention to reply as soon as possible, but that date gives us 20 working days to get all the information we need to respond.

I will be handling your request and collecting the information to answer your questions.

We will let you know when we respond to your request if we intend to publish it.

Please note that we may choose to proactively release our responses to official information requests. However, we do not publish requesters' personal information.

Reply to info@tetaurawhiri.govt.nz if you have any questions about publication or if you have further information for us to consider in relation to your request.

Nāku noa, nā
