Official Information Requests

When a person asks Freemans Bay School for information, Freemans Bay School follows the requirements of the relevant legislation and guidelines.

Types of requests

- State schools are subject to the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act (LGOIMA), which requires boards to take reasonable steps to ensure that parents of enrolled students can learn the location and timing of board meetings, if they are interested, and allows members of the public to access agendas, reports, and meeting minutes.
- Requests for a person's own information are dealt with under the Privacy Act. See Freemans Bay School's Privacy policy .
- Requests for information can be made under the Oranga Tamariki Act or Family Violence Act.
- Requests for other types of information, including parents' requests for information about their child, are covered by the Official Information Act (OIA). See Parents and the Privacy Act .

OIA requests

The board will assess any official information request and respond within 20 working days, as required by the OIA, or may refuse the request, if appropriate. Reasons why a request may be refused include:

- legal reasons for withholding the information
- the information requested is or will soon be publicly available
- the information does not exist or cannot be found
- it would take substantial collation or research to compile the information
- the request is considered frivolous, trivial, or vexatious.

If a request is refused, the board will give reasons for the refusal and ensure the person who requested the information knows they have the right to make a complaint to the Ombudsman.

Charges

Charges may apply, and Freemans Bay School will ensure the person who requested the information agrees to the costs before proceeding. Requests for information may be amended to lessen estimated costs or because they would otherwise be refused due to the need for substantial collation or research.
