Dear Mr Stoneley

On behalf of the Hon Amy Adams, Minister of Justice, thank you for your request for information received on 20 January 2015. Under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act) you request the following:

- "... 1. Please provide the amount (number of) individual members of the public you have met with since your appointment to Minister of Justice, by appointment only; and*
- 2. How many hours, in total have you spent meeting with these members of the public; and*
- 3. On average, how long did you allocate for meetings with these individuals; and*
- 4. At what locations, and the percentage OR number of individuals you have met with at each locations. These could be your Parliamentary Office, your electorate office and so on; and*
- 5. How many members of the public have you refused to meet with since your appointment?"*

The Minister is considering your request in accordance with the Act and will respond in due course.

Yours sincerely
