Subject: Wellington Council looking into whether mosques should be allowed to broadcast call to prayers

To whom it may concern

Regarding the WCC's consideration of whether Mosques should be allowed to broadcast a call to prayer, i would like to make a submission.

Below i have including two links, one to a proponent and one in opposition to allow the adhan in US Cities etc. Personally i disagree with this proposal, and the following is my rational for that position, and it is not because i object to Muslims, I have met many Muslims over the years, and all were lovely people. My objection is fairly simple,

- New Zealand is not Iran. Syria, Somalia, Turkiye etc , we are not a Muslim country, we were not founded on Islam
- Islam does not integrate well into Western society, and their stated goal, take over democracy and replace it with Sharia (proof below).
- Many practicing Muslim's, mainly males, have protested, some violently and aggressively against Israeli citizens and anyone that supports Israel in its war on Terrorism / Hamas, across Western society (Aussie, UK, US etc) and recently brought the UK parliament to a stand still because of their pro Hamas protests.
- Many of these people have no respect for the societies they enter and thus, have no respect for the Parliamentary and Judicial systems.
- People do not want to hear this call especially if they are none Muslim - I personally would find it offensive as i am sure many will.
- Noise pollution hearing such a broad cast early in the morning to late at night, is not only an abuse of privacy which the law is suppose to uphold, it is an attack on democracy.

There is a hidden agenda within Islam, and Islam is a political movement, that many Westerners are oblivious to, The goal of Islam or Islamists is to convert All people to Islam and the ultimate goal, replace democracy with Sharia Law (practiced in Saudi Arabia, Somalia etc Isil, Al Qaeda, El Nusra etc).

The Koran compels Muslims to participate in jihad until Islam the only religion in the world. Non Muslims have 4 fates in areas under Islamic law- convert to islam, be killed, be enslaved or pay a tax to Muslims.

Do you think Islam in NZ is any different to what is being forced on the populations of the EU and other Western Countries? It starts out subdued and then once they have enough supporters, the call to replace democratic processes start as can be clearly seen across the EU and US. Islam in NZ may seem benign but once their population / numbers are influential the push begins.

Wellington City Council is looking into if mosques should be allowed to broadcast call to prayers, even for special occasions.

Councillor Nureddin Abdurahman raised the conversation, asking about how calls to prayer might be made - even for significant occasions like the March 15 terrorist attack anniversary.

It's currently not allowed and there is no plan for Wellington to allow regular broadcast of the call to prayer, which is observed five times a day.

However, an amendment made at a council meeting on March 14 is asking council officers to investigate the rules on noise restrictions and come back with advice.

Councillors voted 10 to seven in favour of looking into it.

Mayor Tory Whanau, who voted in favour, told Newshub councils were responsible for regulating noise under District Plans.

"During last week's council meeting, where multiple amendments were passed to enable more housing in Wellington City, officers were asked to investigate religious observances as part of our District Plan Noise chapter," she said.

"Many religious observances cause public noise. This amendment is a normal and sensible thing to look at for a modern and diverse city that prides itself on being welcoming.

"I am so proud to be the Mayor of a city that not only welcomes but celebrates diversity and inclusion for all members of our community."

Sincerely

Good morning Rebecca,

Thank you for your reply.

I have just a couple of points to finish off with for the time being.

I wonder if you would mind referring to it as the Muslim call to prayer, as it appears that is what you are referring to. To not do so, I suggest, would leave you open to the accusation of practising a deception on the public.

And regarding church bells - something we rarely hear these days - I find it astonishing that a city councillor would consider them public noise. One wonders what the founding fathers (and mothers) of the city would make of such a statement.

Thank you again for your time in replying to my questions.

Hello again Rebecca,

Thank you for your reply.

I wonder if you could clarify a couple of points for me please.

When you refer to the call to prayer, am I right in thinking you mean the Muslim call to prayer? Or are you suggesting that there are other groups wishing to have a broadcast public call to prayer? If it is limited to this one group, for reasons of clarity and accuracy, are you able to refer to it as the Muslim call to prayer?

You mention other religious observances causing public noise at times. I can think of perhaps two - church bells at, say, a wedding or on a Sunday morning, and a group of Hare Krishna devotees chanting in the street. Do you regard these as public noise? Are there any other examples of what you mean?

That's interesting. We were told the day before the debate that

“Amendments to be moved by the Mayor in the substantive

Matter: Noise limits and prayer calls

Instruct officers to report back to Council on how the district plan Noise chapter should enable broadcasted calls to prayer in the City.”

There was no rationale provided as per the majority of other amendments put forward, noting that the paper was principally about zoning for housing (not noise). At that point, Cllr Matthews amendments focused just on zoning as per the Independent Commission’s recommendations (which did not include anything about call to prayers as this had not been raised previously by submitters or by Council previously).

I asked the Mayor for an explanation last Friday and am still awaiting a response.

“A number of representatives have asked me how the Council came to consider such a proposal for a “broadcasted call to prayers” as they were not aware of any request from the various religious and ethnic communities within Wellington. They are also concerned that such a proposal (even for officers to investigate) was not informally discussed with them.

Would you please advise where such a request came from and the amount of community support for it so I can report back.”

Noise is an issue that is governed within our District Plan be that church bells, live music or a call to prayer.

The Muslim community in this city want to investigate whether on special days such as commemoration of the March 15 terrorist attacks, could they broadcast a call to prayer from the Kilbirnie Mosque (similar as was done across national radio in the immediate aftermath).

There is no intention for 5 broadcasts a day and it's been a real shame that the media have reported it in such a way.

As a multicultural city I'm more than happy for council to investigate how this exception for noise could be allowed for in our District Plan and have voted to support that accordingly.

Subject: Call to prayer initiative

Councillor Geordie Rogers

I wanted to list things to consider in case they're not covered by council officers.

1. The by-law change, does it specify only Islamic events, or is it for any religious event. The request from Tory Whanau is narrow and not representative of the wider community in relation to religious events.
2. Does council then need to keep a list of valid religions. Who decides if an event is religious.
3. What about non-religious beliefs and their followers. Secular beliefs are just as valid and as important as non-religious to those groups in the community.
4. If Council is going to allow this change, in the end you have to allow any event whether belief-based or religious or not.
5. How do you then adequately define the event.
6. The Islamic call to prayer includes the statement "There is no God except Allah". Is this offensive to others from the arabic community, to other religions. There are some horrific statements in the quaran in relation to women and homosexuals and even you who are non-islamic. Would these groups in the community find the broadcast offensive.
7. If other religions wish to broadcast on loud speakers their beliefs how do you ensure that they are not offensive to others in the community. For example one of the many non-islamic religions decides to broadcast speech that is somehow offensive to islamists. Where does it stop.
8. The issue with the Islamic requirement in relation to noise is that it is speech, not music nor some other sound or noise. If a right-wing belief group wishes to broadcast at an event that was anti-homosexual (I'm gay the way), would Council allow this?
9. Mosques in Wellington are in lower socio-economic areas such as the middle of Newtown and a similar area Kilbirnie. Is it a case of "Phew, I'm OK as I don't live in that area" but once again its the lower socio-economic that have to suffer, in this case due to the Mayor's virtue signalling and Councillor Nureddin Abdurahman's somewhat arrogant and selfish request.
10. Have council officers consulted with Iwi.
11. Others bring up religious bells being rung. This is not speech. Bells to most people are not an unpleasant noise. Religious bell ringing has been part of NZ including tangata whenua culture for nearly 200 years, and then for the immigrants that brought it to NZ for more than 1000 years.
12. I had a look at what others were saying on social media which is not necessarily full of the most sane. But one sane statement stuck in my mind "This is too much".

Hi there

I'm trying to understand more about an amendment to the District Plan that was passed on Thursday.

I understand it was in the name of Rebecca Matthews, but I've not had any luck speaking with her so am hoping you can help.

I'd like to know

- What exactly is the council being asked to investigate and why?

- Has any Wellington mosque asked to be allowed to broadcast the call to prayer or is this a pre-emptive change?
- What's the next step once the council reports back?

If you could please give me a quick answer by 1.30 pm that'd be great. Feel free to ring if you need to clarify anything.

We would like to interview Rebecca or Tory or someone who can explain this to our listeners on the programme this afternoon if possible.

Thanks

Kia ora team,

Just want to confirm, are you happy with us to respond using the amendments Moana provided below?

“Councils are responsible for regulating noise under District Plans. During last week’s Council meeting, where multiple amendments were passed to enable more housing in Wellington City, officers were asked to look into religious observances as part of our District Plan Noise chapter.

Calls to prayer have not been approved in the Plan and if they were this would not be funded by the Council just as church bells are not funded by Council.”

We will respond this thread if we get any questions, thanks for your help! 😊

It could be possible, or perhaps they may fall under temporary activity noise limits, or may be otherwise permitted. We don't know yet. Calls to prayer weren't considered in our review of the Noise provisions and no-one submitted on this topic. This is why we couldn't address the councillor's request through the IHP recs or the Council amendments, but will have to be a new assessment and plan change.

At this point I'm hoping any change will be simple enough that we can include it as part of the Plan Change 1 (Omnibus) indicatively scheduled to be notified for submissions in early-mid 2025.

Subject: RE: call to prayer, s7(2)(a) can anyone explain what's proposed re District Plan??

I agree with Moana's amendment. The first statement draft is beyond what the Council actually resolved, because "broadcasted calls to prayer" are religion-neutral – we can consider mosque calls, church bells, any other religious observances.

We don't know yet for sure whether a DP change is needed until we report back. Probably yes, but consultation may find that it's covered in existing Plan rules.

The Council meeting debate was about regular calls to prayer, but Council officers will consider how it applies to special religious events as well.

For reference the resolution was:

"Instruct officers to report back to Council on how the district plan Noise chapter should enable broadcasted calls to prayer in the City."

Reworded a bit:

Calls to prayer have not been approved in the Plan and if they were this would not be funded by the Council just as church bells are not funded by Council.

Sean/Adam – I assume it would require a DP change to allow calls to prayer? Also I can't remember the debate but was it about daily calls to prayer or was it for special events like March 15 remembrance or Ramadhan?

Kia ora koutou,

We are still getting some questions about this on social media and it would be great to get a statement. @Sean Audain just checking that this wording is ok to use? Please edit where needed.

An amendment was passed during a Council meeting last week which instructs officers to speak with the Muslim community and look into religious observances as part of our district plan Noise chapter. This is a standard line of work carried out by Councils around the country. Broadcasts calls to prayer are not permitted, however if they were this would not be funded by the Council as this would be the operation of the religious group.

Please note, this was one amendment in a much larger discussion about the city's district plan which focuses on enabling more housing.

We have received enquiries through Councillor Nureddin Abdurahman asking about how calls to prayer might be made, noting that there has been issues with compliance with noise rules in the past.

The amendment passed at last week's committee meeting instructs council officers to return to the council with advice on what these compliance issues are, what rules might need amendment and how that might take place.

The council will have the ability to make a decision whether to continue with this work or initiate a District Plan change (if needed) with public consultation when that scoping paper comes back to the council table.

Hi there

I'm trying to understand more about an amendment to the District Plan that was passed on Thursday.

I understand it was in the name of Rebecca Matthews, but I've not had any luck speaking with her so am hoping you can help.

I'd like to know

- What exactly is the council being asked to investigate and why?

- Has any Wellington mosque asked to be allowed to broadcast the call to prayer or is this a pre-emptive change?
- What's the next step once the council reports back?

If you could please give me a quick answer by 1.30 pm that'd be great. Feel free to ring if you need to clarify anything.

We would like to interview Rebecca or Tory or someone who can explain this to our listeners on the programme this afternoon if possible.

Thanks

Some further additional context:

There is no plan to allow regular broadcast of the call to prayer (five times a day). The amendment regarding the call to prayer simply asks Council officers to investigate the rules on noise restrictions and come back with advice.

This discussion came about because Council officers noted there is no allowance for a mosque to broadcast a call to prayer even for a special occasion such as the annual commemoration of the March 15 attacks.

Hi s7(2)(a)

Please see below and attribute to Mayor Tory Whanau:

"Councils are responsible for regulating noise under District Plans. During last week's Council meeting, where multiple amendments were passed to enable more housing in Wellington City, officers were asked to investigate religious observances as part of our District Plan Noise chapter.

Council also voted to instruct staff to look at how the Plan can better support our music venues in the central city. Both amendments relating to noise were appropriate and raised according to proper process.

Council received enquiries through Councillor Nureddin Abdurahman asking about how calls to prayer might be made, noting a call to prayer currently can never be broadcast, even for the most significant occasions.

Many religious observances cause public noise. This amendment as a normal and sensible thing to look at for a modern and diverse city that prides itself on being welcoming. I am so proud to be the mayor of a city that not only welcomes but celebrates diversity and inclusion for all members of our community.”

Hi s7(2)(a)

There is no plan to allow regular broadcast of the call to prayer in Wellington.

The amendment regarding the call to prayer simply asks Council officers to investigate the rules on noise restrictions and come back with advice.

This discussion came about because Council officers noted there is no allowance for a mosque to broadcast a call to prayer even for a special occasion such as the annual commemoration of the March 15 attacks.

Officers stated this issue could only be looked at as part of the District Plan. It is for this reason that Council passed an amendment to investigate the issue and report back on findings.

Note this is the text of the amendment:

“Instruct officers to report back to Council on how the district plan Noise chapter should enable broadcasted calls to prayer in the City.”

Hi there

I'm trying to understand more about an amendment to the District Plan that was passed on Thursday.

I understand it was in the name of Rebecca Matthews, but I've not had any luck speaking with her so am hoping you can help.

I'd like to know

- What exactly is the council being asked to investigate and why?
- Has any Wellington mosque asked to be allowed to broadcast the call to prayer or is this a pre-emptive change?
- What's the next step once the council reports back?

If you could please give me a quick answer by 1.30 pm that'd be great. Feel free to ring if you need to clarify anything.

We would like to interview Rebecca or Tory or someone who can explain this to our listeners on the programme this afternoon if possible.

Thanks

Salaam to you too Clr Calvert,

Thanks for sharing your concern and offer of a report to the Muslim community. Next time we meet, I am happy to chat on how to engage best with minority communities not because I have the expertise, but I have the lived experience.

On unrelated topic...

Just a reminder yesterday was an International Day To Combat Islamophobia. Islamophobia comes in different forms. It is unfortunate that, as you may agree with me, there are some people who like Islam but hate Muslims or say they like Muslims but hate anything Islamic.

For example, following the Christchurch terrorist attack Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern announced that two minutes of silence following the 1:30pm call to prayer, which was broadcasted on television and radio. s7(2)(a) was the only vocal religious (cult) leader who slammed the decision, accusing Ardern of abusing her PM Power and turning NZ into a Muslim Nation.

Let us catch up next week and have a chat. We obviously have differences in certain areas, but I think I have built a good working relationship with you to address our differences in respectful manner.

Subject: District Plan amendment re call to prayers

Good afternoon/ As-salamu alaikum

I am attending an inter faith commemoration this evening to remember the terrible effects of the 2019 Christchurch mosque massacre.

A number of representatives have asked me how the Council came to consider such a proposal for a “broadcasted call to prayers” as they were not aware of any request from the various religious and ethnic communities within Wellington. They are also concerned that such a proposal (even for officers to investigate) was not informally discussed with them.

Would you please advise where such a request came from and the amount of community support for it so I can report back.

It is also a timely reminder that if we did have an Ethnic advisory group, this is where you would expect such a suggestion to be discussed first and for them to be able to provide expert cultural feedback.

Regards

Diane

Good morning Rebecca,

Thank you for your reply.

I have just a couple of points to finish off with for the time being.

I wonder if you would mind referring to it as the Muslim call to prayer, as it appears that is what you are referring to. To not do so, I suggest, would leave you open to the accusation of practising a deception on the public.

And regarding church bells - something we rarely hear these days - I find it astonishing that a city councillor would consider them public noise. One wonders what the founding fathers (and mothers) of the city would make of such a statement.

Thank you again for your time in replying to my questions.

Regards,

Hello again Rebecca,

Thank you for your reply.

I wonder if you could clarify a couple of points for me please.

When you refer to the call to prayer, am I right in thinking you mean the Muslim call to prayer? Or are you suggesting that there are other groups wishing to have a broadcast public call to prayer? If it is limited to this one group, for reasons of clarity and accuracy, are you able to refer to it as the Muslim call to prayer?

You mention other religious observances causing public noise at times. I can think of perhaps two - church bells at, say, a wedding or on a Sunday morning, and a group of Hare Krishna devotees chanting in the street. Do you regard these as public noise? Are there any other examples of what you mean?

Regards,

I moved this amendment due to concerns raised that the call to prayer could never be broadcast, even for the most significant occasions.

The amendment was simply for staff to do more work on this as part of the noise work in the District Plan, so the policy work and consultation is all to come.

Other religious observances cause public noise at times, which is normal for a city. I see this amendment as a normal and sensible thing to look at for a modern diverse city.

If this is the case, it strikes me as a remarkable initiative by the Council.

I would like to ask the Mayor and each of the councillors who voted in favour of this initiative (as I understand it, Councillors Abdulrahman, Foon, Pouwi Hohaia, Matthews, McNulty, O'Neill, Pannett, Rogers and Wi Neera) a couple of questions please.

I would be grateful if each of you could give me your own personal reply please.

Thank you.

Salaam to you too Clr Calvert,

Thanks for sharing your concern and offer of a report to the Muslim community. Next time we meet, I am happy to chat on how to engage best with minority communities not because I have the expertise, but I have the lived experience.

On unrelated topic...

Just a reminder yesterday was an International Day To Combat Islamophobia. Islamophobia comes in different forms. It is unfortunate that, as you may agree with me, there are some people who like Islam but hate Muslims or say they like Muslims but hate anything Islamic.

For example, following the Christchurch terrorist attack Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern announced that two minutes of silence following the 1:30pm call to prayer, which was broadcasted on television and radio. s7(2)(a) was the only vocal religious (cult) leader who slammed the decision, accusing Ardern of abusing her PM Power and turning NZ into a Muslim Nation.

Let us catch up next week and have a chat. We obviously have differences in certain areas, but I think I have built a good working relationship with you to address our differences in respectful manner.

Nga mihi,

Clr Nureddin Abdurahman

Subject: District Plan amendment re call to prayers

Good afternoon/ As-salamu alaikum

I am attending an inter faith commemoration this evening to remember the terrible effects of the 2019 Christchurch mosque massacre.

A number of representatives have asked me how the Council came to consider such a proposal for a “broadcasted call to prayers” as they were not aware of any request from the various religious and ethnic communities within Wellington. They are also concerned that such a proposal (even for officers to investigate) was not informally discussed with them.

Would you please advise where such a request came from and the amount of community support for it so I can report back.

It is also a timely reminder that if we did have an Ethnic advisory group, this is where you would expect such a suggestion to be discussed first and for them to be able to provide expert cultural feedback.

Regards

Diane

Thank you for your email regarding the Muslim Call to Prayer resolution that recently went to the Kōrau Tūāpapa | Environment and Infrastructure Committee on 14 March 2024.

In response to your specific questions:

- the actual wording of the proposal
  - Instruct officers to report back to Council on how the district plan Noise chapter should enable broadcasted calls to prayer in the City.
- which council member tabled or proposed it, and
  - Councillor Matthews proposed the amendment.
- who voted for and against it and who, if anyone, abstained.
  - This was voted on twice, once for the amendment to be accepted and then again as part of the full recommendation.
  - For the first vote it was 10:7 for and the breakdown is as follows:
    - For: Mayor Whanau, Councillor Abdurahman, Deputy Mayor Foon, Pouivi Hohaia, Councillor

Hi there, I've already spoken to Hedi about this, but due to the changes made to the numbering of the amendments, I cast a couple of votes in error on the final voting. Can these please be corrected in the minutes .

I meant to vote in favour of # 11 the MRT route and against #14 the broadcasted call to prayer. ( consistent with my earlier vote on this issue)

Thank you for your email. My reasons for supporting the amendment are similar to those expressed by Councillor Matthews.

The amendment directed Council staff to investigate options around the call to prayer as part of the noise work in the District Plan. The next step is for them to do that policy work and consult with the public before Council makes any further decision.

Other religious observances cause public noise at times, especially to mark important dates or events. So, I supported this amendment as an appropriate thing to look at for a modern, diverse and welcoming city.

Hi there

I'm trying to understand more about an amendment to the District Plan that was passed on Thursday.

I understand it was in the name of Rebecca Matthews, but I've not had any luck speaking with her so am hoping you can help.

I'd like to know

- What exactly is the council being asked to investigate and why?

- Has any Wellington mosque asked to be allowed to broadcast the call to prayer or is this a pre-emptive change?
- What's the next step once the council reports back?

If you could please give me a quick answer by 1.30 pm that'd be great. Feel free to ring if you need to clarify anything.

We would like to interview Rebecca or Tory or someone who can explain this to our listeners on the programme this afternoon if possible.

Thanks
