NOTICE TO VEHICLE OWNER

1. It is believed on reasonable grounds that the vehicle to which this notice is affixed does not comply with the provisions of Part 17 of the Land Transport Act 1998 in that the motor vehicle is not registered under that Part of the Act in the name of the current owner or with the current address of that person.
2. Under the provisions of section 248(2) of the Land Transport Act 1998 you are directed that this vehicle is to be removed from the road and is not to be driven on a road until the motor vehicle has been registered in the name and current address of the current owner.
3. This notice comes into effect at 11.59 pm on the working day after the day when this notice was issued (unless the name and current address of the owner are registered before that time); and will remain in force until the motor vehicle has been registered in the name and current address of the owner.
4. It is an offence to use this motor vehicle while this notice remains in force. If it is found on a road during that time and the vehicle has not been registered in the name of the current owner or with the current address of that person, an enforcement officer may seize and impound the vehicle without further notice.
