I refer to your email of 22 May 2024 in which you request the following under the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA):

*Could you please provide me with a list based on country and year of consular loan payments made to New Zealanders overseas from 2014 to date (3 May 2024)?
Could you please also provide me with the total outstanding balance across all loans, the average loan amount, the highest loan amount and lowest loan amount?*

Please note that prior to 2020, consular loans were called consular advances.

Consular advances were made in the following countries:

Financial Year 2014/15 - Occupied Palestinian Territories
Financial Year 2015/16 – No consular advances were made during this period.
Financial Year 2016/17 – No consular advances were made during this period.
Financial Year 2017/18 – Egypt; Viet Nam
Financial Year 2018/19 – Brazil; Mexico; Peru.

The attached appendix contains information relevant to your request for consular loan payments for the period 1 July 2019 to 3 May 2024.

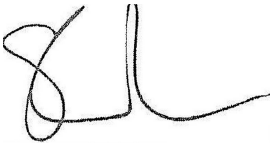

Total outstanding balances across all loans, with the average loan amount, the highest loan amount and lowest loan amount (in NZD), as at 3 May 2024, are set out in the table below.

Total outstanding loan balances as at 3 May 2024 (in NZD)
Total outstanding balance	$756,411.85
Average current loan value	$3,707.90
Highest outstanding loan	$35,000.00
Lowest outstanding loan	$40.00

Please note that it is our policy to proactively release our responses to official information requests where possible. Therefore, our response to your request (with your personal information removed) may be published on the Ministry website: www.mfat.govt.nz/en/about-us/contact-us/official-information-act-responses/
