It was great meeting you and Jack as well! Thanks for being so patient with our security procedures and accommodating the room situation. Next time, I hope we can arrange a nicer space for you!

I'm truly sorry I wasn't able to properly say goodbye after the interview – I got pulled away unexpectedly.

Thanks again for making this happen!

Thank you [REDACTED]

Just got some more details on the arrival process. For security reasons, our security staff will need to inspect the equipment before it's brought up to the Embassy. I apologise for the inconvenience, but could the crew aim to arrive 20-30 minutes earlier to allow time for this?

Just to clarify, it's the equipment check that takes the most time. If you'd prefer, one person can stay with the equipment while the rest of the crew proceeds to the Embassy. Jack Tame can expect about a 5-minute processing time.

Let me know if you have any questions!

Can I confirm please that we are able to have access to the filming space at 1pm so our camera people can set up? We won't need the Ambassador until the interview at 2pm.

All crew will arrive at 1pm except Jack, who will arrive closer to 2pm.

2pm on April 18th works well for the Ambassador. We can make a room available at the Embassy for the interview.

To ensure a smooth process, could you please provide the following for security purposes:

How about we do the interview 2pm on April 18? Would there be a room in the Embassy we can use for this?

If so, we would need access to the space from about 1pm to set up lights/cameras etc. We would not need the Ambassador until 2pm.

Let me know what you think.

Many thanks,

Hi [redacted]

Released under the Official Information Act 1982

Thank you for the follow-up. The Ambassador is available until Thursday, April 18th. Would it be possible to conduct the interview before then? Friday morning will, unfortunately, conflict with his travel schedule.

Let me know what you think.

Regards,

Hi [Redacted]

Thank you for your time on the phone earlier. It's good to hear from you.

The best time for Q+A would be before midday on Friday April 19. Would this suit the Ambassador?

I can confirm we can travel to Wellington for this interview. We can sort out exact location once we get an indication the Ambassador can do Friday morning.

The interview will be conducted by Jack Tame.

Many thanks in advance.

We understand the Ambassador's views regarding timing. We would definitely still like to have him on the show at some point.

Next week or another date soon after that would be good. Please keep in touch and let us know when we will be able to schedule something.

I very much appreciate your help with this.

I just tried to give you a call but I think my phone is having some issues with outgoing calls.

I apologise for the delay in getting back to you, and thank you again for reaching out and for your flexibility regarding the interview's location. We genuinely appreciate the opportunity to engage with Q+A.

I wanted to clarify a misunderstanding on my part. Initially, I believed the primary concern regarding the Ambassador's participation in the Q+A interview was the location and the logistics that come with it. But, after talking to the Ambassador, it's clear now that the timing is our main challenge. As you might be aware, there are currently some sensitive negotiations taking place. Given these circumstances, we feel it would be premature to comment publicly or participate in media interviews at this stage.

However, I want to assure you that we are very much interested in the opportunity to appear on Q+A. The Ambassador values the platform you've offered to discuss these important issues. Could we look into scheduling the interview for a later date, perhaps next week or as soon as it becomes appropriate for us to share our insights more publicly?

Released under the Official Information Act 1982

Thanks again for your understanding and flexibility.

Shalom [Redacted]
I hope you're doing well.

TVNZ's political current affairs programme Q+A would like to request an interview with Ambassador Ran Yaakoby.

This would centre around what is currently happening in Israel and the Gaza Strip, what the future may look like, and the New Zealand Government's stance on the situation. The interview will be conducted by Jack Tame.

Released under the Official Information Act 1982

Q+A is filmed in Auckland on Sundays from 9am. If it suits him, we invite the Ambassador to appear live on our next show, February 18.

I look forward to hearing back from you.
