Weather and Climate

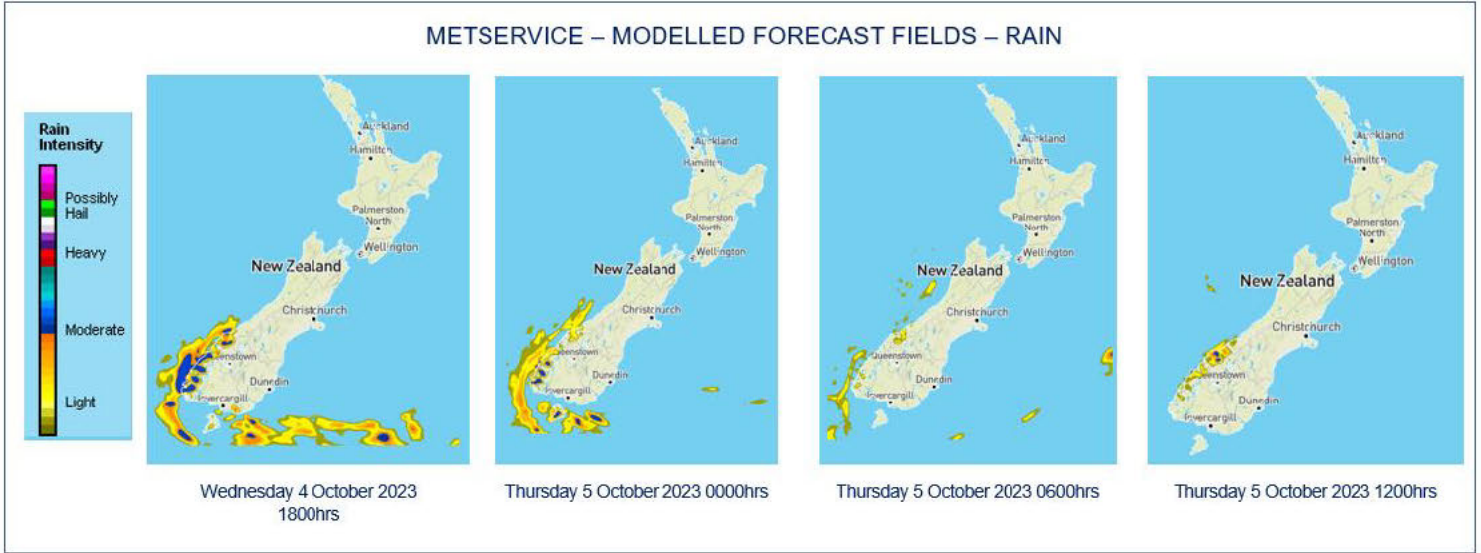

Current Weather

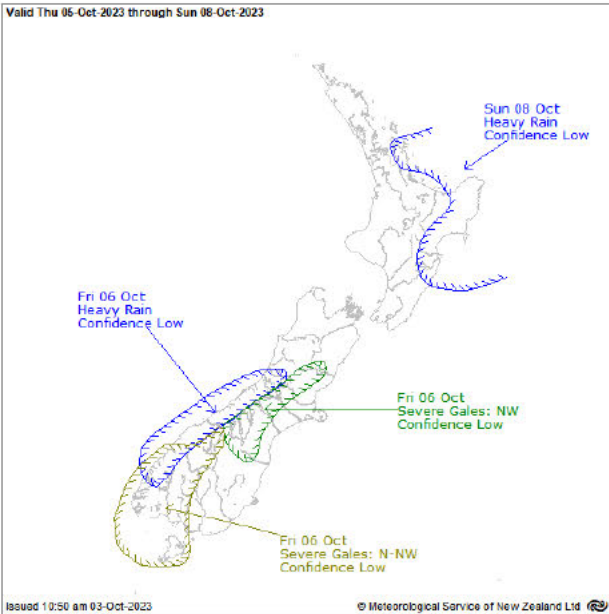

There are no severe weather watches or warnings in force for Aotearoa New Zealand today.

Accurate from MetService as at 1000hrs today.

METSERVICE – MODELLED FORECAST FIELDS – RAIN

Severe Weather Outlook

An area of high pressure is expected to bring settled weather to the nation tomorrow.

A moist north-westerly flow moves onto the country on Friday, with a series of embedded fronts crossing New Zealand. The flow turns southwest behind the fronts and eases on Saturday. A low is expected to develop on a front west of the North Island late Saturday, then crosses the North Island on Sunday, bringing a burst of heavy rain, especially to eastern parts.

VS	HIGH	Issues with EASYVOTE for: 1. Mt Albert- and Epsom voting place 2. Te Tai Hauāuru candidate sheet found in Ikaroa-Rāwhiti electorate packs 3. Unsalvageable Te Atatū packs approx 700	29/09/23	Adele [REDACTED] PA VS		Reputational - high impact on all these 3 electorates as it will delay EASYvotes cards to electors.	Ongoing progress to identify issues across all three electorates 04/10 - Progressing well. Database for Te Atātū is 280 rather than 700 as earlier expected. An apology letter will be sent to electors to provide relevant information. A media release has been drafted and details on Elections NZ.
