Dear Phil,

Official Information Act request: Correspondence

Thank you for your email of 27 September 2024, in which you requested, under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act), correspondence. Specifically, you requested:

I am writing to request copies of all communications, including written correspondence and all types of electronic communications (such as emails, messages, and any other digital formats), between you and your office and members of the Council of Licensed Firearm Owners in New Zealand organisation since your swearing-in as a Minister.

On Friday 27 September 2024, we asked if your request could be refined and you did not wish to do so. Therefore, I am refusing your request under section 18(f) of the Act as there would be substantial time and effort for research and collation of this information and will impact my Offices' other operations.

If you are not satisfied with this response, you have the right to make a complaint to the Ombudsman under section 28(3) of the Act. The Office of the Ombudsman may be contacted by email to info@ombudsman.parliament.nz or by phone on 0800 802 602.

Yours Sincerely
