Official information request regarding Electrical and Electronic Engineering (EEEN) courses

We refer to your request for information under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act) dated 15 January 2025:

“Could the Faculty of Engineering please explain why the internationally recognized core courses ECEN 303 (Analogue Electronics) and ECEN 302 (Integrated Digital Electronics) were removed from the elective course list ?”

The University renamed its Electronic and Computer Systems Engineering (ECEN) programme to Electrical and Electronic Engineering (EEEN) in 2020. This change necessitated modifications to a range of courses offered within the new programme, including but not limited to ECEN302 and ECEN303. As a result, both of these courses were discontinued, and their content was integrated into other courses where feasible. The attached programme amendment documentation offers a more detailed explanation of this process.

Please note that some personal information has been withheld to protect the privacy of natural persons under section 9(2)(a) of the Act.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of the decisions made regarding this request. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.
