Dear Ms Harris

Official Information Act Request

Thank you for your email received 31 July 2012 seeking, under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act), information regarding a recent submission to the Law Commission's review of the Official Information Act and all drafts, advice, and internal communications relating to that submission.

ACC made a submission to the Law Commission about the review of the Official Information Act in 2010 and this is to be placed on the Law Commission's website. Therefore your request for the submission is declined because the information is, or soon will be, publicly available. This decision complies with section 18(d) of the Act.

ACC does not have drafts, advice, and internal communications relating to that submission on file. Therefore, your request for this information is declined because the document alleged to contain it does not exist, or cannot be found. This decision complies with section 18(e) of the Act.

Please contact me on 04 816 5850 if you would like to talk about this letter. I will be happy to answer any questions or, if you have any concerns, work with you to resolve these.

If you are still not happy, you may make a complaint to the Office of the Ombudsmen. You can call them on 0800 802 602, 9am to 5pm weekdays, or write to:

The Office of the Ombudsmen
