Dear Mr Smith

Extension of time to answer Official Information Request

I refer to your official information request of 14 October 2016 where you requested the following information:

"I would like to request the following information, for the last three years:

- Number of consultations commenced (minor and major)
- Number of resulting reorganizations (minor and major)
- Number of positions affected (disestablished and created)
- Number of individuals been made redundant
- Number of people leaving the Callaghan organization
- Number of people leaders leaving the Callaghan organization
- Number of people receiving a severance / redundancy payment
- Total monetary amount of severance / redundancy payments "

Given the scope of this request, we will not be able to respond within the timeframe set out in the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA). Accordingly, Callaghan Innovation has decided to extend the time limit for responding to your request pursuant to section 15A (b) of the OIA. We will reply to your request no later than 21 November 2016 or earlier if possible.

The extension is required because of consultations necessary to make a decision on your request are such that a proper response cannot reasonably be made within the normal 20 working day time limit.

You have the right under section 28(3) of the Official Information Act to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of our decision to extend the time limit for responding to your request. A request must be made in writing to:

The Ombudsman
