Access to the public archives held by Archives New Zealand is administered through the Public Records Act 2005. As these records are open access, anyone can order copies or request to view them. I am therefore refusing your request under section 18(d) of the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) as the information is available publicly.

To access these records, you may either visit our Wellington reading room, at 10 Mulgrave Street, or request copies online through our remote reference service.

To view these records in person, you must have a reader's card, which can be obtained free of charge by visiting any of our reading rooms (Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch or Dunedin). Please take photo identification with you if you wish to register for a reader's card.

To request copies of records remotely, please email our Research Services team at research.archives@dia.govt.nz and include the list of records you wish to have copies of. A reader's card is not required for email enquiries. Cost recovery charges apply for copies of archives provided through this service. I have not forwarded your current request to Research Services as we require an email address through which to contact you directly.

You have the right under section 28 of the OIA to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint can be found at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or Freephone 0800 802 602.

Yours sincerely
