My only request is, if we get any media interest, let me know.

I understand that charges are now in place to park at the riverbank market, does this include disabled parking. We don't have the choice to park on the road, the paths to the market go up hill therefore can't get wheelchair up and over. I am 61 with broken shoulder, my mother is in a wheelchair, no way could she wheel over the hill into the market

Is there any help for other wheelchair or disabled users. Do we still need to pay.

Thanks

Minnie

This was also discussed at the meeting this morning. As per John's email we don't need to meet so you can proceed to next steps of the process.

The Council indicated that it was happy to call a special meeting of the Traffic Subcommittee to deal with this once you are ready to go them.

Were you happy with this approach? If so I can follow up with David Bassett and people here re next steps which would be proceeding to consulting on the proposal. This wouldn't require us to meet.

I would be keen to meet with you next week at a suitable time for you to discuss the Saturday 30 minute parking suggestion. I have spoken with our Traffic team and by then they will have some suggestions which I will cover off with you. Any agreed changes would then need to go through a consultative process before approval by Council and implementation.

If you can give me some times that suit you I will confirm arrangements to meet.

Hi everyone,

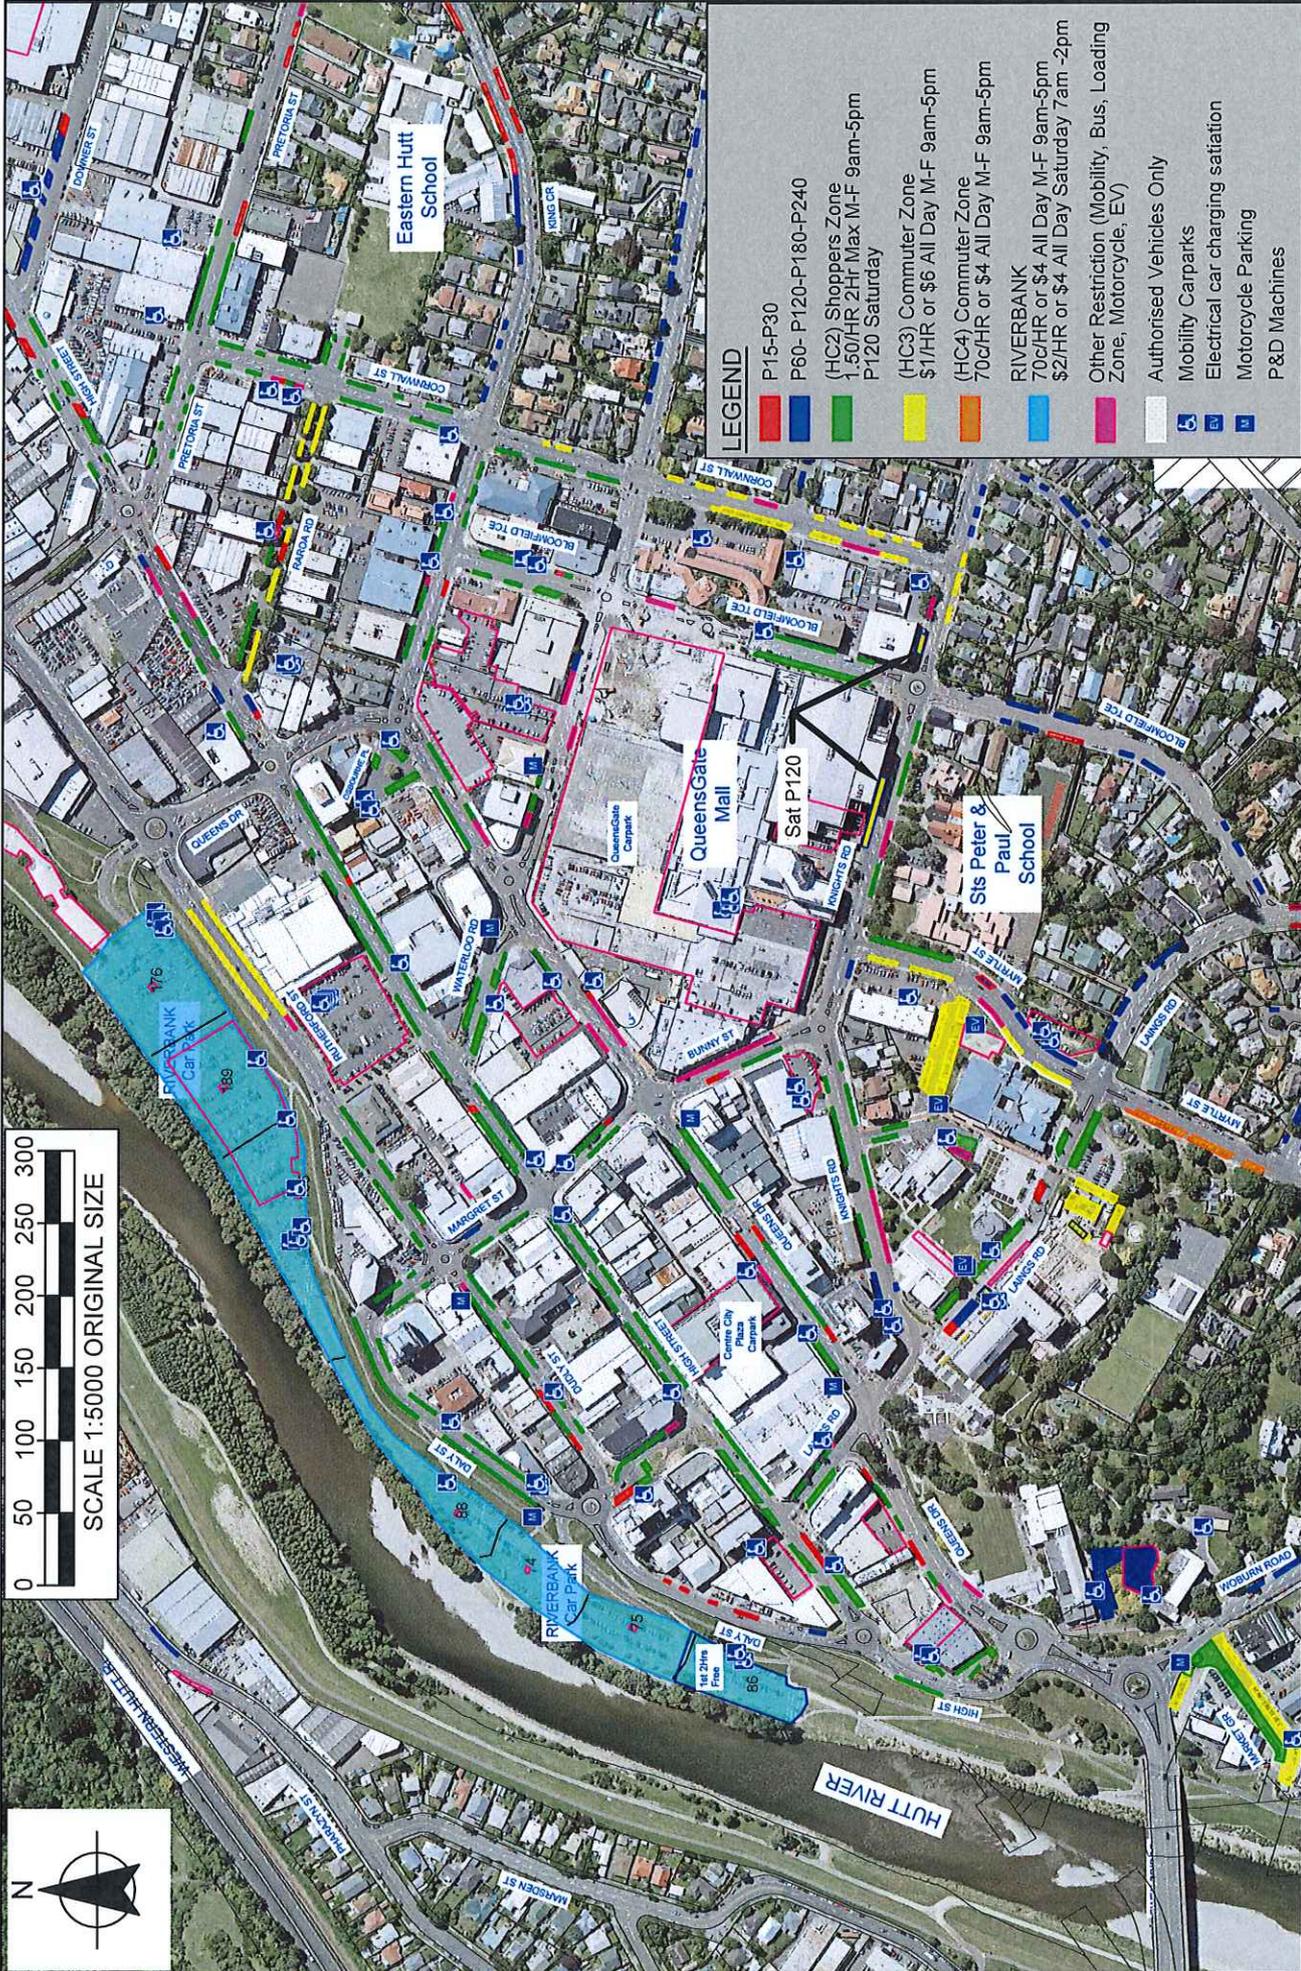

Attached is the draft comms plan.

Can you please send me any revisions/suggestions/sign off by Monday afternoon at the latest?

Zackary – do you have any great images of the Riverbank Car Park that you could send me?

Also, the comms team have had a discussion about whether it should be Riverbank Car Park (capitalised) or Riverbank car park (not capitalised). There doesn't seem to be much consistency (some people write Market Grove Car Park and others Ward Street car park) so we've decided it should be capitalised. Let me know if we're wrong!

Yes that is correct – the Council is proposing to charge $2.00 per hour between 7.00am and 2.00pm.

Goes to Council meeting on 6 June for approval.

The revenue collected will go to offsetting the traffic management fee for running the market.

I have been hearing a bit about the river bank car park changing from being free on a Saturday to $2 an hour? Is this correct? I understand for people parking there for the market that won't be a lot as they won't be there for a long amount of time but still not ideal for them either! But for us who work Saturday's and park at the river bank for 4 hours plus, that will be more expensive then parking for a whole day on a week day! If this could be clarified that would be great. Thank you in advance

Cr Barry was unable to comment, re: Riverbank Market, at the last Council Meeting. Do you know what his conflict of interest was?

From when will the charges be implemented?

7.00am to 2pm is 7 hours in total so $14.00 based on $2 per hour.

That's the way its proposed at moment but Council could consider a max daily charge – she should make a submission to the Community Plan Committee meeting of 6 June 2018.

So if Samantha is working 8 hours and parks at the Riverbank she'll have to pay $16?

Yes - It applies to everyone parking in the Riverbank carpark – can't provide exceptions.

Hi Gary,

Will this apply to Samantha even though she's not attending the Market?

Yes that is correct – the Council is proposing to charge $2.00 per hour between 7.00am and 2.00pm.

Goes to Council meeting on 6 June for approval.

The revenue collected will go to offsetting the traffic management fee for running the market.

Cheers

I have been hearing a bit about the river bank car park changing from being free on a Saturday to $2 an hour? Is this correct? I understand for people parking there for the market that won't be a lot as they won't be there for a long amount of time but still not ideal for them either! But for us who work Saturday's and park at the river bank for 4 hours plus, that will be more expensive then parking for a whole day on a week day! If this could be clarified that would be great. Thank you in advance
