Dear Mx Traylen

Official Information Act 1982 request – Implementation of To Be Who I am 2008 report

I refer to your email of 18 July 2018 requesting, under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act), the following information:

All papers concerning the To Be Who I Am Report written in 2008 – the year the final report was originally published.

Your request was subsequently refined on 22 August 2018 as follows:

“... I am seeking all reasonably significant papers, whether written for the Minister or for internal consideration.

I am not seeking correspondence such as letters or emails at this stage of my research...”

Seven documents fall within the scope of your request. The table in Appendix 1 sets out each document being released to you. Personal details have been withheld from two documents, in reliance on s 9(2)(a) of the Act, which protects the privacy of people.

In line with s 9(1) of the Act, I am satisfied that there are no other public interest considerations that override the need to protect people's privacy. You have the right under s 28(3) of the Act to complain to the Ombudsman about the response to your request. Contact details for the Office of the Ombudsman are:
