Dear Liam

In response to your inquiry asking

1. For the academic years of 2016, 2017 and 2018 (the "Period"), please provide the following data sets:
 - (a) The number of students enrolled in an LLB program. If possible, it would be helpful if this could be split into those in "pre-law" (ie first year) and "law students" (ie those who have made it into Law School);
 - (b) The number of students who are Māori who are enrolled in an LLB program. If possible, it would be helpful if this could be split into those in "pre-law" (ie first year) and "law students" (ie those who have made it into Law School); and
 - (c) any other information related to the number/proportion of Law students to Māori Law students at your university for the Period.

Our reporting separates out new intake students versus those returning, the numbers are as follows.

	New student intake in Law	Returning students in Law	New Māori students in law	Returning Māori students in law
2016	327	362	39	40
2017	284	471	35	58
2018	290	518	37	60

Yours sincerely
